c. Vital Records Schedule

The Vital Records Schedule for the Office of Logistics was revised in order to provide for complete coverage. The activation of the LSD realigned certain responsibilities, and the Vital Records Schedule was adjusted accordingly. In addition, the format was changed to comply with Agency requirements.

d. Conversion of Temporary Employees

Actions were submitted on three Laborers and two Bindery Operatives to convert them from temporary to regular staff employee status and reassign them to permanent positions on the OL Staffing Complement.

e. Miscellaneous Problem Cases

(1) One Bindery Operative submitted his resignation after notification that his conversion from temporary to regular staff employee status had been disapproved for security reasons. Another Bindery Operative was reassigned to the Office of the Comptroller upon the expiration of his temporary appointment, since he was not happy in the printing field and was desirous of
